

This

Children have done exceptionally well with their SATs practise this week, I have been incredibly impressed with how well they have conducted themselves and the attitude they have had towards them. Hopefully, this has helped ease some anxiety about what they look like.

Important information and dates for the diary:

- Learning conversations are scheduled for November so individual progress, discussion and worries can be discussed then
- Friday 23rd October is a Non-Pupil Day
- Our PE days are Monday and Friday.
- Please make sure all uniform is labelled. Please could I also remind that after half term we will be moving to our winter uniform. This includes;
White shirt
School tie

week's spellings: Spelling test will be Monday 2nd November.
